

Please keep the No Call list in force, do not weaken it, if anything make it stronger. I believe we should be able to have a telephone without being harassed by telemarketers. I would like to see political calls also banned, I get tired of coming home to find my answering machine maxed out with these calls. Thank you.